Recipe For Health | JUNE 2015

PERCH WITH MANGO SALSA

Perfectly seasoned perch!

by Corporate Chef Kurt Kwaitkowski
Featured Food: Yellow Perch

reatured rood. Tellow I

Yield: Serves 6-8

Ingredients

8-10 oz. yellow perch fillets

1 T. harissa paste2 t. fenugreek leaves $1 \frac{1}{2}$  t. ground cumin1 t. ground coriander

4 T. olive oil 1 T. lemon juice

1 serrano pepper, veined, seeded and minced1 t. white wine vinegar4 c. small diced red pepper3 T. brown sugar

2 cloves of garlic, minced Salt and pepper to taste

3 mangos, peeled, medium dice (these do NOT have to be ripe)

Preparation

Rinse and drain fillets on paper towel. Place fillets on sheet pan. Mix harissa paste and cumin together with 1 T. olive oil. Brush on the perch and let marinate in refrigerator for 1-2 hours

2 t. turmeric

Heat 1 T. oil in a non-stick sauce pan over medium heat and sauté peppers and garlic for 1 minute. Add the mangos and reduce heat to low. Add seasonings, lemon juice, and vinegar and cook on low for 5 minutes. Add brown sugar and stir lightly until sugar is melted. Remove from heat; add salt and pepper to taste. Set aside.

Add 3 T. olive oil to non-stick sauté pan; over medium high heat, lightly pan sear the perch cooking skin side down first and then turning after 3 minutes to finish cooking on the flesh side for an additional 2 minutes. Top with salsa and serve.